SKILL DEVELOPMENT COURSE ON HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM (Pilot Mode June 2024) An initiative of The Career
Counselling and Placement Cell, GDC Darlaghat

Sir,

The short-term certificate course in Hospitality, envisaged under "Vacations for Vocation" programme was completed successfully by five students of the College from Royal Orchid Place, Shimla and Baghal Hotel, Darlaghat between June-September 2024.

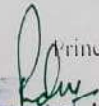

Placements were offered to these students in the hotels they apprenticed with. It is notable that students were also paid a stipend for duration of the course.

S. No.	Name of Student	Roll. No.	Placement	Remarks
1	Aarti	22010004	Royal Orchid, Regenta Place, Shimla
2	Tamanna	23010057	Royal Orchid, Regenta Place, Shimla
3	Sanjana	23010001	Since these students apprenticed with a HPTDC Hotel, they were not offered direct placement in these hotels, but Hotel administration was willing to place them elsewhere in private enterprises.
4	Vandana	23010013
5	Nikita	23010005

As the students were enrolled in Second Year in College, therefore, they were encouraged to finish their graduation before joining the workforce.

The short-term course undoubtedly aided in upskilling of these students, helping them acquire practical skills such as workplace communication, people management and life skills beyond hotel management. This course offered a valuable use of the students' summer break, equipping them with industry-relevant knowledge.

WOMEN ENTREPRENEURSHIP PROGRAMME (ACIC- ETERNAL UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION)

On 13th May 2024, the inaugural workshop of the Women Entrepreneurship Programme was organized at the Eternal University, Badu Sahib, Sirmaur. This event was organized by initiative of the Women Entrepreneurship Platform (WEP) of NITI Aayog. Dr. Ruchi Ramesh, Principal of Govt College, Darlaghat was a special invitee to the workshop. Two students of the college, Bhawna (B.Com Third Year) and Khushi (B.A. Third year) participated in the workshop and were accompanied by Assistant Professor Ms. Bhuvi Sharma.

The Women Entrepreneurship Programme aims to empower young women by providing them with essential skills, knowledge, and resources to thrive as successful entrepreneurs. This one-day inaugural workshop entailed interaction with some of the finest, most courageous of women entrepreneurs including Neerah Sarmah, the Bamboo Lady of India; Neha Uppadhyay, founder of Guna Organics Vishwadeep Trust; Saloni Godbole, founder of Occamy Bioscience; Yamuna Sastry, founder of FLIP and co-founder of CabDost and Aditi Madan, CEO of Bluepine and Yangkiez. These women shared the story of their incredible journeys of hardwork, innovation, creativity, courage, struggles, and victories with hundreds of young girls. Along with their stories, they also shared a number of practical tips on entrepreneurship. Entrepreneurship is not merely starting a new business. It entails understanding the needs of the society, finding a problem that affects people, and working from there to find a solution in a creative and innovative way. While the importance of having an idea cannot be overstated, it is the execution which assumes greater significance. In order to be a successful entrepreneur, one not only needs to eat, breathe, and sleep that one idea but also needs to embrace failures and learn from past mistakes. In addition, the session involved a discussion on marketing strategies and funding.

Overall, the workshop was an enriching experience for all participants and especially inspiring for the young future women entrepreneurs. In addition, GDC Darlaghat and Eternal University Foundation are in process of finalizing an MoU to enable students of our college to undertake training in entrepreneurial skills and other courses at Eternal Foundation.
